Sewer Back Up Restrictions

Ask anyone who's experienced it. A sewer drain backing up is a very unpleasant experience.

Sewer back up coverage provides insurance coverage for damage caused by water entering a dwelling as a result of accidental escape of water from a sewer, sump or septic tank.

FIVE TIPS FOR IDENTIFYING WATER DAMAGE IN YOUR HOME

- 1 Inspect Plumbing Lines/Systems.
 - Check for plumbing fixtures located on exterior walls of the home. Plumbing that runs through an outside wall to supply a tub or sink is prone to freezing, and pipes may burst in cold climates.
 - Make sure there are water pans under washing machines, hot water heaters, air conditioning units and water-bearing appliances located in or above finished living areas.

Fatal Distractions? Technology gadgets lead to dangerous driving

There have always been distractions while driving – tuning the radio, drinking coffee, or attending to a child.

Today, a new generation of technology gadgets – from cell phones and PDA's to GPS systems and MP3 players – are making these distractions seem old-fashioned.
